Frequently Asked Questions

Who must have an account?

If you regularly purchase tangible personal property from suppliers who are not located in California and not authorized or required to collect sales or use tax from you, you must have a California consumer use tax account.

Is there a charge for a consumer use tax account?

No. However, we may require a security deposit. Security deposits are applied against any unpaid taxes that may be owed at the time a business closes.

Is information regarding my account subject to public disclosure?

Your records are generally covered by state laws that protect your privacy. However, some records are subject to public disclosure, such as the information on your consumer use tax account, names of owners or partners, your business address, and your account status. See also the disclosure information on the back page.

Why do you need to verify my driver license number?

This is required to ensure the accuracy of the information provided and to protect you against fraudulent use of your identification.

What are my rights and responsibilities as a holder of a consumer use tax account?

When you obtain an account, you acquire certain rights and responsibilities. For example,

- You must keep records to substantiate any purchases made by you and subject to California use tax. You must keep your records for four years.
- You must file returns on or before the last day of the month following the close of your reporting period. You must file your tax returns even if you did not purchase any merchandise.
- You must notify the Board if you move, change ownership of, or sell your business. Your consumer use tax account is valid only at the address and for the type of ownership specified on the application. You must notify the Board of any change in ownership. In addition, you must immediately notify us in writing if you discontinue your business. Your notification will help us to close your account and return any security you may have on deposit.
- You must notify us immediately if you drop or add a partner. This may protect former partners from tax liabilities incurred by the business after the partnership change.

If you have questions about information contained in this application, please contact one of the Board offices listed on page 4.

Tips for Filling Out Your Application

Ownership Information

Items 1-25:

All applicants. You must provide the information requested for each owner, co-owner, partner, officer, manager, member or trustee (attach additional sheets if necessary).

All partnerships. Partnerships should provide a copy of their written partnership agreement, if one exists. If you file your agreement with us at the time you apply for an account and your agreement specifies that all business assets are held in the name of the partnership, the law requires the Board to attempt to collect any delinquent tax liability from the partnership assets before it attempts to collect from the partners' personal assets. You should notify us immediately if you add or drop partners (see pg. 2).

All limited liability companies (LLCs): You must provide copies of your Articles of Organization.

Items 10, 11, 19, 20: Driver License/Social Security Number

You must provide your Social Security number and driver license or California Identification Card number. You must also provide a photocopy of your driver license or California Identification Card. This information is kept in strictest confidence.

Business Information

Items 26 to 53: Ownership and Organizational Changes

If you are purchasing an existing business, we need to know the previous owner's name and seller's permit, or account number. To make sure you won't have to pay the previous owner's unpaid taxes, you should write to us and request a tax clearance before you buy.

If you are changing from one type of business organization to another (for example, from a sole owner to a general partnership or from a general partnership to a limited liability company), provide the previous owner's name and seller's permit, or account number.

Certification

Be sure to sign your application before you mail it. As indicated on the application, only certain persons are authorized to sign the form.

For this relief to apply, your request for advice must be in writing, identify the taxpayer to whom the advice applies, and fully describe the facts and circumstances of the transaction.

Send your request for written advice to: State Board of Equalization; Public Information and Administration Section, MIC:44; PO Box 942879, Sacramento, CA 94279-0044.

CLASSES

You may enroll in a basic sales and use tax class offered by some local Board offices. You should call ahead to find out when your local office conducts classes for beginning sellers.

You can log onto our website for additional information. For example, you can find out what the tax rate is in a particular county, or you can download numerous publications — such as laws, regulations, pamphlets, and policy manuals — that will help you understand how the law applies to your business. You can also verify sellers' permit numbers online, read about upcoming Taxpayers' Bill of Rights hearings, and obtain information on Board field office addresses and telephone numbers.

Another good resource — especially for starting businesses — is the California Tax Information Center at www.taxes.ca.gov.
